

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

pursuant to art. 22 paragraph 4 letter a) of Italian Law no. 240/2010 of 30/12/2010 and the Research Fellowships Regulation issued by Rector's Decree no.416 of 19/04/2011

Art. 1 - Purpose

A public competition is launched, based on qualifications or an interview, or on qualifications, at: Dipartimento di Filosofia e Comunicazione, Alma Mater Studiorum University of Bologna to award 1 A Type research fellowships, in the subject fields of Area 11 – History, philosophy, pedagogy and psychology, specifically in the following scientific areas: M-FIL/03.

In the above scientific areas, research projects will be considered focusing specifically on the investigation of the subject-matter explored by the PRIN PNRR project PRIN PNRR “DeCo – Democratizing Concepts” (henceforth DeCo DeCo) directed by Matteo Santarelli (Università di Bologna) in collaboration with Giacomo Ciocca e Anna Borghi (Sapienza Università di Roma).

DeCo aims to illuminate some key aspects of the practices through which social actors contest, negotiate, and reconstruct concepts in specific situations. Two aspects constitute the specific subject matter of the research: conceptual revision—that is, the ways through which concepts are contested, questioned, and reconstructed—and politicization—that is, the processes through which concepts become politically relevant.

The main goal of DeCo is thus to provide an integrated and interdisciplinary approach to the understanding of mechanisms underlying the politicization, negotiation, and democratization of specific concepts (e.g., ecological, gender/sex, and scientific-technological concepts). To pursue this end, DeCo will engage both in theoretical analysis and in empirical study. The outcomes of this twofold research will contribute to the design of citizen science experiment, consisting of a data collection experiment involving laypersons, experts, and activists.

Applicants are invited to design their own project within the theoretical framework of the project. Specifically, applicants will be expected to contribute to theoretical work on the topics of conceptual revision and politicization, focusing on both descriptive and normative issues suggested by the existing literature on these topics. To this end, a profile with expertise in social and moral philosophy is required, and preferably skilled in adopting a multidisciplinary approach, engaging in dialogue with the social and cognitive sciences. Moreover, the Fellow will also be required to coordinate the DeCo monthly meeting, involving the Bologna and Sapienza Università di Roma teams, and to contribute to the organization of the final conference of the project.

The research fellowships are issued pursuant to the University Regulation issued by Rector's Decree no. 416 of 19/04/2011, financed by the European Union NextGeneration EU, Piano Nazionale di Ripresa e Resilienza (PNRR) – Missione 4 Istruzione e ricerca – componente 2 Dalla Ricerca all'impresa - Investimento [1.1], Avviso [Prin 2022 indetto con DD 1409 del 14-09-2023], entitled “Democratizing Concepts (DeCo)”, Proposal code Prot.
